The Cliffs Announces PGA Professional Dan Cordaro as Head Golf Pro at The Cliffs at Walnut Cove

(TRAVELERS REST, S.C.) – The Cliffs is pleased to announce that Dan Cordaro has joined its team as head golf professional at The Cliffs at Walnut Cove. A PGA Professional with experience at leading private clubs in Florida and New York, Cordaro will help further elevate the golf experience at The Cliffs at Walnut Cove located just minutes from Asheville.

Cordaro joins The Cliffs from Bears Paw Country Club in Naples, FL where he served as first assistant golf professional for the club's Jack Nicklaus-designed championship course, which has played host to numerous U.S. Open qualifiers. Prior to that, Cordaro was assistant golf professional at Quail West Golf and Country Club in Naples. He holds several industry qualifications including his Swing Catalyst Level 1 and Callaway master fitting certifications. Cordaro received his training from Bill Harmon Golf School and the Professional Golf Management Program.

"We are pleased to welcome Dan to our outstanding club team at The Cliffs at Walnut Cove," said Rob Duckett, president of The Cliffs. "Dan brings impressive experience, a love for the game, and a customer-first attitude that will serve our members very well. We look forward to his contributions as we continue to invest in the club experience at The Cliffs at Walnut Cove."

Inspired by the ageless villages of Europe, The Cliffs at Walnut Cove is nestled in a lush valley and bordered by the Pisgah National Forest and Blue Ridge Parkway. The private club community features a Jack Nicklaus Signature golf course, an expansive club village with a tavern and restaurant, an impressive wellness center, nearby hiking trails, and Creekside Farm, a community supported agriculture program providing members with fresh, seasonal produce.
